

PORT EMPLOYEE RECOGNIZED

Port of Galveston Police Officer, Frank Solis, has been commended for his actions related to aiding a couple from Nassau Bay.

In a letter the couple wrote to the Port of Galveston, "Officer Solis is by far the finest police officer I have ever met"... "We are unable to praise this fine officer more. He stopped and rendered aid to two strangers who were not even in his sphere of responsibility. There is no doubt he saved us from severe illness or worse. And all of this for two and a half hours on his time off and taking a drive with his family"... "If your other officers are half as good as officer Solis, you must have the finest police department in the country."

Officer Solis was recognized for his efforts by Chief James Thompson.

Officer Frank Solis has been with the Port of Galveston Police Department since November 2001.
