

Peterlin Joins HOGANSAC

Capt. John G. Peterlin III, Senior Director of Marketing and Administration for the Port of Galveston, representing the Port of Galveston was recently sworn in as a member of the Houston-Galveston Navigation Safety Advisory Committee (HOGANSAC). Peterlin was appointed by U.S. Secretary of Transportation, Norman Mineta, to this committee that advises the Admiral commanding the U.S. Coast Guard 8th District on navigation and safety issues in the Galveston Bay/Galveston-Texas City-Houston Ship Channel and Port Complex. He previously served as a member of HOGANSAC in the previous Bush Administration as a representative of the oil tanker industry.

New members sworn in include Janice E. Sandwick of Central Transportation Systems; Rear Admiral Roy J. Casto, Commander, Eight Coast Guard District who officiated; Raymond Butler, Executive Director, Gulf Intracoastal Waterways Association; Laura J. Gissen, TEPPCO Crude Pipeline; Beverly I. Clarke, Lyondell-Citgo Refining; and Captain John Peterlin, Senior Director of Marketing and Administration, Port of Galveston.