

Galveston Exhibits at Breakbulk Transpo

The Port of Galveston participated at the Breakbulk Transpo, sponsored by the Journal of Commerce, in New Orleans in October. Attended by ports, shippers, ship lines, stevedores, and labor, this show is the premier conference for the breakbulk industry.
