

PORT OF GALVESTON SPEAKER'S BUREAU

In early 2005, the Port of Galveston Speakers Bureau will be available to address and present information about the activities at the Port of Galveston. The Bureau will be available to make presentations about current and future plans and about recent developments at the Port of Galveston.

The Bureau may discuss the growth in cruise operations and/or cargo operations port-wide. Additional information may include developments on both Galveston and Pelican Islands.

The Speaker's Bureau will increase opportunities for the Galveston community to learn about the Port. Information will be provided about who the Port of Galveston is, what the Port is doing and how the Port is doing it. Members of the Board of Trustees and staff are available to make presentations on topics pertaining to the Port and the maritime industry in Galveston.

To schedule a speaker, please contact Judy Slocum-McGrory at the Port of Galveston, 409-766-6119 or by email at jslocum@portofgalveston.com.
